Firefighters

Superpower: Fire Resistant Firefighter Gear

Firefighters can be dropped into regions impacted by wildfires to combat specific sections or they can fight fires from the edges with water, sand or fire.

The fire resistant firefighter gear protects you from all wildfire disasters.

Center for Disease Control (CDC) Sleuths

Superpower: First-Aid Kit

CDC officials help manage regulations and laws surrounding public health.

The first-aid kit protects you from all disease disasters.

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)

Superpower: Super Beam Flashlight

FEMA Representatives provide disaster assistance for individuals after hurricanes.

The super beam flashlight protects you from all hurricane disasters.

Rescue Squad

Superpower: Speedy Rescue Boat

Rescue squads provide first aid, emergency rescue, and guidance on safe evacuation practices during floods.

The speedy rescue boat protects you from all flood disasters

Climatologists

Superpower: Temperature Cooling Serum

Scientists research ways to solve climate change issues. They work to slow down increasing temperatures and minimize the number of regions that experience them.

The temperature cooling serum protects you from all extreme heat disasters.

Utility Crew

Superpower: Utility Truck

Utilities and transportation repair crews prepare roads and keep them clear during winter storms. They also work to keep power and phone lines up and running so we can communicate.

The utility truck protects you from all snowstorm disasters.
