On March 17, 2010, the Student Supreme Court held a hearing in Holgate v. Gillooly, 09 SSC 008. In Holgate, Plaintiff Taylor Holgate challenged the validity of the District 5 Student Congress election. At the conclusion of the Holgate hearing, the Chief Justice informed the parties that no decision would be announced until a final opinion was released. To date, the Court has not released a final opinion. On April 6, 2010, members of the 92nd Student Congress will be sworn in at the Student Government Inauguration Ceremony.

At this time, the Court could either enjoin swearing in a District 5 representative or announce its decision in Holgate. In order to prevent District 5 from being unrepresented at any session of the 92nd Student Congress, the Court has decided to announce its decision in 09 SSC 008. We have decided not to call for a re-election for District 5. An opinion explaining the Court's rationale for this decision shall be released and a reading of this opinion shall be scheduled on or before Sunday, April 11, 2010.
