MEMORANDUM

Plaintiffs in the above-entitled action, through the undersigned counsel, respectfully advise the Court of their intent to contest the relevancy and undue prejudice of the following pieces of evidence, submitted by Defendant:

1. Exhibit 2: An email from Student Body President Leimenstoll informing multiple Congress, including Plaintiff Travis Crayton, and members of Tar Heel Rifle and Pistol Club that he has vetoed SCB-94-242 as of March 19th and attached his veto message
2. Exhibit 3: The veto message from Student Body President Leimenstoll explaining the reasoning for his veto which was attached to the previous exhibit (email)
3. Exhibit 4: The physical copy of SCB-94-242 with the Veto stamp by Student Body President Leimenstoll, indicating this bill has been vetoed and will not become law.

While Plaintiffs acknowledge that memoranda are not considered “official papers” under the Student Code, Plaintiffs do request opportunity to make oral arguments opposing the use of this evidence to determine a ruling on Defendant’s motion to dismiss, since motions to quash are not under the jurisdiction of the Court.

I do affirm that the information contained herein is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
