Withdrawal from elections

In order to look out for the mental health of myself, friends and family, I am announcing my official withdrawal from the Student Body President Elections. Thank you for all the support you have shown and I hope to spent this upcoming year reflecting and learning from these experiences and staying in touch with the people I met along the way. I also show my unequivocal support for Chris Everett and believe that he will be the best candidate for the upcoming year who will change Carolina for the better and bring a genuine voice to our student government.
Thank you Carolina.
